CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Dear Students,

Kanoria School of Law for Women (KSLW) has completed seven years of its existence, striving committedly to join the league of the best institutes of Legal Education in India. The college is determined to shoulder the cardinal responsibility of inspiring, motivating, and facilitating young knowledge seekers to explore new avenues and enter professional circuits. Set up under the aegis of Kanoria Girls College Trust, the college has shown vigor and rigor with a progressive outlook to fulfil the mission set up before them. I congratulate the faculty and staff for encouraging participation of women in the vast field of law with utmost sincerity and integrity.

My best wishes are with the students for their better and bigger tomorrow, personally and professionally.

Justice Pana Chand Jain (Retd.)

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Students...

Greetings from the college community!

The threshold of this campus welcomes you to a partnership in the enterprise of education by opening up space and scope which will shape and navigate your professional chart and personal growth. The relationship between you and the institution is going to be reciprocal. To elicit rich dividend from your classroom and campus life, you should invest more of your energy, time and will.

People of this country have a deep and abiding faith in the judicial system to be the guiding and guarding institution for constitutional rule. Soon, you would also be joining this professional circuit which has the cardinal attribute of reasoning and rationality at its core. Your faculty has deftly and assiduously curated classroom pedagogies and other activities for you to think through the ideas, cultivate reasoning, and imbibe rationality.

We hope that your pursuit of knowledge will be a rich experience to reckon with and will inculcate in you the highest ideals of legal profession.

Dr. Rashmi Chaturvedi

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

As you usher in a bright and promising future by choosing to embark on the prestigious B.A.,LL.B. Integrated five-year law course. This dynamic program is not only a rewarding journey into the world of law but also an opportunity to prepare for the challenges of a globalized legal landscape.

LAW COLLEGE PANORAMA

Kanoria School of Law for Women (KSLW), established in 2018, stands as a distinguished beacon of legal education, committed to empowering women and shaping future leaders in the legal domain. The college is approved by the Bar Council of India and is affiliated to Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar Law University, Jaipur and located within the Kanoria Mahila Mahavidyalaya Campus, JLN Marg, opposite the University of Rajasthan. The college is known for its academic excellence and is committed to shaping the lives of legal professionals.

College provides holistic legal education, blending academic rigor with practical experience, ensuring that students are well-prepared to meet the challenges of the dynamic legal landscape. Students are engaged in a range of activities, from moot court competitions to debates to Model United Nations (MUNs), seminars, webinars, legal aid services, theatre cum Personality development workshops, book review activities and many more. These activities are designed not just to enhance academic learning but to foster leadership, critical thinking, and ethical practice.

The campus with its state of infrastructure is a modern, technology-enabled learning space with fully air-conditioned classrooms, smart boards, a well-stocked law library, Moot Court Room, Legal Aid Clinic and Seminar Halls equipped for national and international events which support future lawyers in academic and interpersonal growth.

The college fosters a sense of participation through a variety of extracurricular activities that support the development of skilled individuals. These include cultural programs, sports competitions, social outreach initiatives, and internship opportunities to interact and work with legal professionals and organizations. The college's strong focus on internships ensures that students gain valuable hands-on experience with law firms, NGOs, courts, corporate legal departments and commissions equipping them with the practical knowledge required for a successful career in law.

With its impeccable track record of 100% admission and remarkable academic success, Kanoria School of Law for Women continues to chart new frontiers in legal education, producing not just skilled legal professionals, but also strong, confident women who are ready to leave their mark on society.

PROGRAMME OFFERED B.A.,LL.B. (5 Year Integrated Course)

“In a gentle way, you can shake the world.”

-Mahatma Gandhi

Studying law includes both professional and social education, acquiring professional skills as well as aiming at value-oriented, socio-cultural conditioning. Legal profession has always been considered as a noble profession as it plays an important role in delivering justice and protecting citizen's rights along with helping society to grow in accordance with societal norms. Legal education functions not only as an instrument of social control but also as an instrument of social change which is imperative to creating cultured law-abiding citizens, who are imbued with the concept of human rights and values. It equips individuals with the legal knowledge and fosters analytical thinking, ethical judgment, and the skills necessary for navigating complex legal issues.

The college offers a B.A.,LL.B. five-year integrated course. It is a unique blend of both the study of art subjects such as Political Science, English, Sociology and Law subjects such as Criminal Laws, Corporate and Commercial Laws, Constitutional Law, International Law and more. The teaching pedagogy adopted here will prepare the student for a variety of career opportunities in law firms, corporate sectors, judiciary, advocacy, and public service.

Together, we believe that we can shake the world.

SESSION 2024-25

AT A GLANCE

CLUBS

CONSTITUTION CLUB

Previously known as Constitutional Law Club. The club is an idea conceived by Dr. Vartika Arora, Founder Principal of Kanoria School of Law for Women, Jaipur, to encourage discussion and deep rooted understanding in the subject of Constitutional Law. The club aims to cover various aspects of the subject which cannot be covered in the classroom due to several constraints. The club undertakes activities in the form of special lectures, competitions, and exhaustive discussions that augment further understanding of the students in the field of Constitutional Law.

MOOT COURT CLUB

The club is the student committee entrusted with the responsibility of administering all moot related activities at KSLW and to establish high standards of excellence in the field of mooting. The club organizes extensive workshops, demonstrations, moot court competitions, mediation, arbitration and client counselling to enable students to learn the process of mooting from the very basic to the most intricate details.

LEGAL AID CLINIC

The Legal Aid Clinic is marked with the object to spread legal awareness and promote justice and equality. It undertakes the responsibility to encourage students to solve the challenges faced by the ignorant people of the society and make them aware of their rights and duties by organizing activities such as poster presentation, roadshows, street plays, and various interactive sessions.

ENVIRONMENT CLUB

The club cultivates a sense of responsibility and stewardship towards the natural world among the students. Through various activities such as tree planting, recycling programs and educational campaigns, the Environment Club seeks to raise awareness about environmental conservation and sustainable practices. By fostering a sense of environmental consciousness and activism, the club inspires individuals to become environmental advocates and leaders who work towards creating a healthier, more sustainable planet for future generations.

IPR CLUB

Intellectual Property Rights Club promotes constant awareness about IPs such as patent, copyright, trademark, design etc. The club creates a conducive environment in academics by organizing expert lectures and looks forward to workshops, seminars and conferences.

SOCIAL LEGAL CLUB

The club is an initiative to inspire socio-legal writing among the students at KSLW. It aims at exploring issues relating to the interface between law and society. The club would be conducting and facilitating research and activities relating to the convergence of legal and social fields. It will maintain reading groups, film screenings, talks, workshops, seminars and conferences as a means of academic engagement.

ORATORY CLUB

The essence of lawyer's work lies in skillfully wielding words. For a law student, learning the art of public speaking in paramount. Oratory Club aims to enhance student's speaking skills. Students would be encouraged to participate in MUN, elocution, and debate competitions. Oratory activities would help in inculcating litigating skills, confidence and ensure overall growth and development.

BOOK REVIEW CLUB

Exercise of brain is the only key for sharp memory and thinking. Book reading is the best tool for it. It ensures valuable knowledge and improves the communication skills of a law student. The club, with the aim of activating all bookworms among students, organizes book review activities such as Passion into Action, Pen and Paper Hub: My Pen, My Sword and so on.

DRAMA CLUB

The drama club aims at fostering creativity, skill development, and personal growth to cultivate confidence in performance and public speaking, empowering members to express themselves with poise and authenticity. It seeks to provide a platform for individuals to explore and express themselves through theatrical endeavors. Through participation in acting, directing, and technical aspects of theater, students are encouraged to develop their artistic talents while also honing their communication and collaboration skills.

CULTURAL CLUB

Everyone is an artist, the need is to give a glance only. The Cultural Club of KSLW ensures a platform where students can showcase their hidden talent by participating in various cultural events and celebrations. The club regulates and encourages the participation of students in cultural activities in house and out side the college.

MEDIA CLUB

The Media Club aims to develop professionalism among the students. The basic objectives of the club are to develop skills of digital marketing, video production, photography, VFX editing, managing and coordinating event to enhance their personalities.

SPORTS CLUB

The Sports Club is devoted towards ensuring a good physical as well as mental wellbeing of the students. Sports inculcate team spirit, sportsmanship, bonding, and make students aware of the sports law. KSLW Sports Club organizes sports day, online sessions for yoga and sessions on Women's Health from time to time.

COMMITTEES

STUDENT GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL COMMITTEE

The Student Grievance Redressal Committee addresses the grievances at the individual and class levels with utmost confidentiality and ease. The committee maintains a conducive and unbiased educational environment. Complaints from students and parents are addressed with a focus on being timely and reasonable solutions.

DISCIPLINE ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

The Discipline and Anti-Ragging Committee is responsible to ensure that students maintain discipline in classrooms and within the college campus. Ragging is strictly prohibited; punitive action will be taken against students who are found guilty. Feel free to contact the committee members for quick redressal of the problem. Nuisance and unethical activities will not be entertained at any cost.

PLACEMENT AND INTERNSHIP COMMITTEE

The Placements and Internship Committee (PIC) has been established in the year 2024. The main aim of the committee is to provide opportunities related with placements and internships to the students. Before PIC, the college had the Internship Club, which got merged with the broader vision of PIC. After merger of the PIC and Internship Club, PIC regulates and arranges internships for the interested students in various NGO's, law firms and with eminent lawyers. Simultaneously, it helps students to pave their ways for their careers.

INTERNAL COMPLAINT COMMITTEE

The college has established an Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee in accordance with the guidelines of UGC and the Supreme Court to provide a safe and healthy atmosphere to the students. The committee aims to prevent harassment against women by conducting regular checks, organising gender sensitization programmes, and other like nature activities.

In his lecture, Justice Chauhan eloquently navigated the intricate interplay between law, technology, and constitutional principles and discussed growing menace of hate speech. Sir, meticulously examined the nexus between social media and fundamental rights, drawing a compelling parallel between its promise and its perils.

KSLW MUN 2025

An Intra-class Model United Nations (MUN) was organized on 14-15 February, 2025 aimed at fostering diplomacy, debate, and global awareness among students on theme “SHATTERED BORDERS, SILENT STRUGGLES: WOMEN, WAR AND THE MIGRATION CRISIS”. The conference brought together young minds to engage in discussions on international affairs, policymaking, and global challenges.

Model United Nations (MUN) is an academic simulation that emulates the procedures of the United Nations (UN) to find solutions for real-world issues. In MUN, students participate as "delegates" of UN Member States and simulate UN committees. MUN aims to educate students about current events, international relations, diplomacy, and the United Nations agenda.

The KSLW MUN 2025 featured four key committees:

- 1. United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) – Led by Chairperson Ms. Mitsu Choudhary and Co- Chairperson Ms. Sneha Sharma, this committee deliberated on “Global Peace and Security Issues”.
- 2. United Nations Security Council (UNSC) – Under the leadership of Ms. Mansi Tiwari and Co- Chairperson Ms. Hiba Khan, discussions centered on “International Conflict Resolution”.
- 3. United Nations Women's Commission (UNWC) – Chaired by Ms. Lakshi Goyal and Co-Chairperson Ms. Ridhima Banerjee, the committee focused on “Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment”.
- 4. International Press Committee (IPC) – Led by Dr. Priyanka Sharma, this committee covered media representation and journalistic reporting of the conference proceedings.

LEGAL AID CLINIC

At Kanoria School of Law for Women, we believe in nurturing not just competent legal professionals, but also socially responsible citizens. Our Legal Aid Clinic plays a pivotal role in bridging the gap between legal education and real-world impact through active engagement with communities in need. Our College has conducted many activities in this regard

- In collaboration with Project Saksham 3.0, our Legal Aid Club led a series of impactful legal assistance initiatives in the Jhalana Doongri area, our students conducted extensive community surveys to identify key legal challenges faced by residents, including property disputes, family concerns, and errors in government documentation such as Aadhaar and ration cards.
- Over 50 committed student volunteers took part in outreach visit to Dausa not only documenting the issues but also assisting residents in navigating legal solutions. This initiative provided students with invaluable hands-on experience while simultaneously uplifting the underprivileged community through direct legal support.
- Raising legal consciousness is at the heart of our mission. The Legal Aid Club staged a powerful awareness play titled “Varini” across several educational institutions in Jaipur, including Mahatma Gandhi School, Kendriya Vidyalaya No. 1, and Maheshwari Girls Senior Secondary School. The program combined informative PowerPoint presentations with emotionally engaging theatrical performances centered on the POSH (Prevention of Sexual Harassment) and POCSO (Protection of Children from Sexual Offences) Acts. These efforts sparked conversations, educated young minds, and inspired proactive engagement with legal rights and protections.
- KSLW hosted a Free Legal Aid Clinic Camp, providing a vital platform for community members to seek expert advice on a range of legal matters, including family and property disputes. Esteemed advocate Ms. Neelu Sharma from the Rajasthan High Court led the camp, offering clear, compassionate legal guidance to all attendees. Her presence ensured that participants received practical and reliable assistance in resolving their issues.

PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT CUM THEATRE WORKSHOP

Kanoria School of Law for women organized a 10 day Personality Development cum Theatre Workshop from 31st January to 10th February. The Workshop was conducted by well known theater artist Mr. Harshvardhan Chaturvedi.
